WACM Explains...

What comes next:
Grad school or industry?

Monday, November 12th, 5:30 PM
1221 CS

Panelists: Polina Dudnik (now at Google), Irene Rae (current PhD Student), Elizabeth Soechting (now at Epic)

Trying to decide what to do after graduation? Our panel will discuss the pros and cons of working in several types of jobs, as well as getting a masters or PhD. Our panelists have all had experience in both grad school and industry. We will try to offer a balanced look at this choice. Come and find out the answers to your questions!

WACM Explains... is a series of events hosted by WACM, the Women in CS. WACM Explains... is open to anyone, and the goal is to be of interest to all students.

Also, we will have Oreos. =)
